A Leave Request: Where Should It Go?

What a manager does the day a team member mentions health, family, a new child or military service

FMLA in one line. Up to 12 weeks in 12 months, unpaid, job protected, health coverage kept. Eligible after 12 months and 1,250 hours. Continuous, intermittent, or a reduced schedule. The Leave team decides eligibility; you never do.

1 They tell you, in any words.
"My dad is in the hospital." "The doctor wants me out three weeks." Thank them, listen, and do not ask what is wrong medically. →

2 You route it, the same day.
Pick the door below. For health or family, that is Origami. Tell your HCM the same day. An injury is reported first. →

3 The Leave team runs it.
Eligibility, certification, dates and pay are theirs. Coverage, the schedule and timekeeping are yours, with the codes they give you.

HEALTH OR FAMILY

Origami. FMLA and other medical or family leave.

- Send them to Origami, or open the request with them
- Intermittent leave is leave, not attendance
- Certification goes from the provider to the Leave team, never to you
- Plan coverage from the approved dates

HURT AT WORK

The injury report, the same day. Then Origami.

- Nashville campus: Occupational Health Clinic, 1211 21st Ave South, Medical Arts Building Suite 640, 615-936-0955, Mon to Fri 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.
- OHC closed: VUMC Emergency Department, then OHC the next business day
- Outside Nashville: nearest Vanderbilt walk-in clinic or appropriate facility; say the injury is work related

NEEDS A CHANGE AT WORK

Equal Opportunity and Access runs the interactive process.

- A request to keep working differently is an accommodation request
- Recognize it, route it, keep the person working while it is worked out
- Leave and accommodation can run side by side

PLAIN TIME OFF

Yours. Approve it and say yes out loud.

- A wedding, a trip, a long weekend
- UKG for hourly staff, Oracle Cloud for exempt staff
- Check coverage first, then the approval

Origami: your part, and the lines you never cross

YOU DO

- ✓ Route it the day you hear it
- ✓ Tell your HCM the same day
- ✓ Watch the approved type and dates in Origami
- ✓ Record leave time with the Leave team's codes
- ✓ Keep in touch about the return, not the condition

YOU NEVER

- ✗ Ask for a diagnosis or the paperwork
- ✗ Decide eligibility, or say it will not qualify
- ✗ Wait for a better time, or ask them to
- ✗ Count approved leave against attendance or performance
- ✗ Discuss it with the team beyond the coverage plan

Who manages what

LEAVE AND WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Every leave and every work-injury claim for Tennessee-based staff: eligibility, certification, dates, pay, return to work.

615-343-4125 · fmlaprocessing@vanderbilt.edu

YOU AND YOUR HCM

Coverage, the schedule, timekeeping, and the conversation when they come back. Outside Tennessee, work-injury claims go to Travelers: 800-238-6225, First.Report@travelers.com.

Leave laws, benefits and procedures vary by jurisdiction and by policy. Questions about a specific situation go to Leave and Workers' Compensation, then the PCB HelpDesk. This page is guidance, not legal advice.